VERSE 1
G                                    G
If my words did glow         with the gold of sunshine
C                                                                     G
And my tunes          were played           on a uke        un-strung
G                                            C
Would you here my voice            Come through the music
G                        D                  C                       G
Would you hold it near              As it were your own?

VERSE 2
G                                      C
It’s  a hand me-down,      The thoughts are broken
C                                                           G
Per-haps           they’re better       left        un-sung
G                           C
I don’t know    Don’t really care
G                D          C                 G        G
Let there be songs         to fill the air

Chorus
Am               D                            G                C
Ripple in still water,    When there is no pebble tossed,
A7        D7
Nor wind to blow

 Reach out your hand    If your cup be empty

If your cup       is full     may it be         a-gain         Let it be known
C              G                 D          C                     G
There is a fountain    that was not made     By the hands of men
Verse 4
G                      C                    G

G                      C                    G               D        C                    G     G
And if you go No one may follow, That path is for your steps a-lone

You, who choose To lead, must follow. But if you fall you fall a-lone

If you should stand then who’s to guide you? If I knew the way I would take you home
